

CIRCULAR TO SHAREHOLDERS

25th May 2021

Dear Shareholder,

DECLARATION OF FINAL DIVIDEND FOR THE YEAR 2020

At the AGM held on 24th May 2021, shareholders' approved proposal from the Board of a final dividend for the year 2020. Based on the exemplary performance amidst challenging times, 15% on the face value of share was approved. A total of MVR 1.97Mn was paid to the shareholders as interim dividend in December 2020 and the balance will be paid in due course.

The books were closed for the purpose of dividend distribution on 16th May 2021 as communicated in the Notice of Meeting for the AGM. Shareholders in the register as of that date will be entitled for the dividends.

As per Section 55(a)(4) of the Income Tax Act (Law No. 25/2019), which came into effect on 01 January 2020, it requires 'the Company to deduct 10% from any dividends paid to "Non-Resident" shareholders. Section 55(c)(1) of the Act further states that if at the time of dividend payment, it cannot be determined whether or not the shareholder who receives the payment is resident in the Maldives (as defined in the Act), it shall be deemed that the shareholder is not a resident in the Maldives; and requires the Company to deduct a non-resident withholding tax of 10% from any dividend paid to such shareholders.

In view of the Act and its compliance, in order to determine whether or not a shareholder is resident in the Maldives, shareholders whose residency status have changed are required to update their residency status by writing to Amana Takaful (Maldives) PLC (Email: investor.relations@takaful.mv, Fax: +960 3340729) or by updating the details via infinity.mv by 5th June 2021.

Any dividends paid to shareholders will be calculated based on the declarations made by the shareholder on their tax residency status or as per the latest information updated in the shareholders' registry of Amana Takaful (Maldives) PLC. If any shareholder fails to update residency status before the deadline of 5th June 2021, ATM will be compelled to deduct 10% of the dividend payable to the shareholder and such amounts will be paid to Maldives Inland Revenue Authority (MIRA) as required by the Income Tax Act.

End.
