Capital Market Development Authority Signs MOU with Islamic University of Maldives

Capital Market Development Authority (CMDA) has signed a memorandum of understanding with the Islamic University of Maldives (IUM) to collaborate on the areas of Islamic finance and capital market.

Under the MoU, the Authority's publications on the finance industry including Islamic Finance, will be made accessible through the University's library. Islamic finance related awareness programs are also planned to be conducted for the students and employees of the University. Further, the MoU also includes collaboration and providing technical assistance on research in the field of Islamic finance as well as the inclusion of Islamic capital market related topics in the University's research areas.

This MoU signed between CMDA and IUM will provide additional avenues to create awareness in Islamic finance and aid capacity building in this area.

For more information please call CMDA on 3336619.
