CMDA in collaboration with IRTI commences ‘Workshop on Islamic Capital Market’

A training program organized by the Capital Market Development Authority in association with the Islamic Research and Training Institute (IRTI) of IsDB with the title “Workshop on Islamic Capital Market” commenced today, 25th November 2019 at 08:30 a.m. It is targeted to those working in the field including government institutes responsible for the development of Islamic Finance. The three-day program is scheduled to be concluded on 27th November 2019.

The opening of the program was graced by the Vice-Chancellor of Islamic University, Dr. Ibrahim Zakaraiyya Moosa. During his speech, the importance of the development of Islamic Finance in a hundred percent Muslim country like Maldives was highlighted. The participants were also encouraged to make the most out of the training program and to use every knowledge gained in this program practically and to engage in the development of Islamic Finance in Maldives.

During a time period where Islamic products are being introduced to the market, the objective of this program includes educating and explaining the concepts, accounting, and record-keeping for such products. The main area of the program includes Islamic portfolio management with its Shariah screening, Record & Book-keeping and Performance evaluation as well.

With a total of 27 participants from the government and private sector, the training is conducted by experienced and professional facilitators arranged by IRTI.
